Boston, MA, January 16, 2018 – Beacon Gallery is pleased to announce that in conjunction with “Lives in Limbo: Refugees at the Gates of Europe,” it will be showing Ai Wei Wei’s academy-award nominated film “Human Flow.”

“Human Flow” will be shown daily through the end of “Lives in Limbo: Refugees at the Gates of Europe,” (January 28th 2018) and will continue to be shown after the end of the exhibit if there is sufficient interest.

Christine O'Donnell, the owner and manager of Beacon Gallery, says, "This film fits in perfectly with "Lives in Limbo" and its aim to bring attention to the refugee crisis in Europe. I am delighted and honored to have the opportunity to show Human Flow at Beacon Gallery. I hope that it will help to further the dialogue around migration, refugees and what we, as bystanders, to this crisis can do to help."

Tickets to the shows can be purchased online at beacongalleries.com or in person. Additional showings beyond those listed above can be arranged for groups of 8 or more by contacting the gallery directly at 857-277-1700.

Gallery hours are Wednesday through Friday 10-5 pm, and Saturday and Sunday 12-5, and by appointment. For press inquiries please contact Rachel Legault at marketing@beacongalleries.com or refer to our website, www.beacongalleries.com.
